T.V.A. WINS SUPREME COURT APPROVAL

EIGHT JUSTICES SIGN RULING AS READ BY HUGHES

McReynolds Only Dissenter in Tennessee Case; Scope of Decision Wide

FINDING NEW DEAL AID

Rights of Government Declared Three-Fold By Chief of High Tribunal

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—The Supreme Court today upheld constitutionality of the New Deal's vast Tennessee Valley Authority experiment on all points placed in issue in the present test. The opinion of the Court, read by Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes, was so sweeping that the New Deal power and legal experts immediately asserted it had given the right of way to the New Deal's other vast power experiments.

The vote was 8 to 1. The lone dissenter was Justice James McReynolds. Four justices, however, presented a concurring opinion in connection with the majority decision read by Chief Justice Hughes. "The ruling," according to Edward J. Foley Jr., chief PWA counsel, "upheld the right of the government to improve streams for navigation by dam projects. "It declared constitutional the government's program to sell the power the projects created by water storage."

Hughes upheld the following rights of the government:

1. The right to build Wilson dam, key structure of the T. V. A. under war power and powers of aiding navigation.
2. The right to sell power produced at such dams.
3. The right to build transmission lines to transport such powers to a reasonable market.

Supreme court ruling on T.V.A. brought smiles on the faces of Pickaway-co farmers who are interested in the rural electrification program.

Source of power has been the only factor holding back the local program, the farmers were recently told by state Farm Bureau officials, and if no arrangements can be made with power companies there is a possibility T.V.A. power will be extended through this district.

Approximately 1,278 farms are listed under the country's R.E.A. program as potential users covering 361 miles of roadways. The project is listed at $407,359.

2 PRISONERS CUT JAILER, TRUSTIES TRYING ESCAPE

ST. CLAIRSVILLE, Feb. 17.—(UP)—Four persons were stabbed here today during an attempted escape of two prisoners from the Belmont-co jail.

Officers said Conrad Firtzie, 40, and Joseph Gambon, 30, attempted to escape by using a wooden key to get out of the cell block.

They attacked Night Jailer Frank Johnson. Three trustees aided Johnson. All four were wounded by knives Firtzie and Gambon had taken from the jail kitchen.

COLUMBUS, Feb. 17.—(UP)—A search inside and outside the prison walls was started today for Eugene Molitz, 24, of Columbus, missing from his cell in Ohio penitentiary since Saturday.

COUGHLIN, O'CONNOR IN VERBAL DISPUTE

DETROIT, Feb. 17.—(UP)—The Rev. Charles E. Coughlin, radio priest, and Rep. James J. O'Connor, D., N. Y., chairman of the house rules committee, were parties to a name-calling controversy today.

Coughlin accused O'Connor of sponsoring a "fraudulent" bill in Congress and of killing the Frazier-Lemke farm mortgage bill.

O'Connor, denying the charges explicitly, wanted Coughlin to go to Washington so he could "kick him from the capitol to the White House."

New Death Date to Be Set By Judge Trenchard, Lying on Sick Bed

TRENTON, N. J., Feb. 17.—(UP)—The attorney general's office indicated today that it would not ask for a resentencing of Bruno Richard Hauptmann before tomorrow.

TRENTON, N. J., Feb. 17.—(UP)—One of America's richest women, one of its most successful criminal lawyers and the governor of New Jersey allied today to wring a confession from Bruno Richard Hauptmann.

The entente became apparent only a few hours before Justice Thomas W. Trenchard was to sentence the Lindbergh baby killer to die in less than eight weeks. Its members were Mrs. Evalyn Walsh McLean, commanding a multi-million dollar fortune, Samuel Leibowitz, chief counsel for the negro defendants of the Scottsboro case and successful defender of 112 murder suspects, and Gov. Harold G. Hoffman.

Leibowitz cross-examined Hauptmann like a prosecuting attorney for almost four hours in the state prison death house yesterday. Then he talked with Hoffman for three hours.

HEROISM IS TOLD IN STORM WAKE

300 CCC Youths Trying to Save Isolated Town

CHICAGO, Feb. 17.—(UP)—Heroic rescue of two persons dangerously ill and the fight to reach 200 villagers facing starvation after a month's isolation today topped the battle against winter's intense cold and snow.

Residents of the village of Hatfield, in northwestern Missouri, have been cut off from the outside world for a full month. Fuel supplies were exhausted today. Only 12 sacks of flour and a few cans of beans and other tinned goods remained to be rationed.

A force of 300 CCC youths and state highway plows attempted to cut through the drifts with more snow falling, an airplane was to drop food for the town if the shovellers failed.

Sudden Crumbling of Ice Ends Stream Spectacle

Nature Pulls Trick on Many Who Visit Darby Vicinity to View Jam; Current Proves Stronger Than Dynamite

Like a disappearing act performed by a magician, nature played a trick on spectators at Dewey park Saturday afternoon that left them dumfounded.

In 15 minutes she crumbled the huge ice jam that threatened the old covered bridge and carried it away in the swift current. The swollen stream even picked up huge cakes along the banks and swept them to the river.

Charles Mowery, district highway superintendent, reported the break-up was one of the most unusual spectacles he had ever witnessed.

BORAH TO TOUR OHIO IN MARCH

Leaders of Campaign Discuss Plans in Akron

AKRON, Feb. 17.—(UP)—A speaking tour, beginning the middle of March, will be a part of Senator William E. Borah's campaign for Ohio delegates to the Republican national convention.

The presidential candidate will speak in Youngstown during the week of March 15. Later he will speak in Akron, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Toledo and Columbus.

Plans for the speaking tour were laid at a meeting of Borah-for-president leaders here over the week-end. Former Rep. Royal Johnson of North Dakota represented Borah at the meeting.

Borah delegates-at-large candidates will not be announced until after the meeting of the Republican state central committee at Columbus Tuesday. An expression of which presidential candidate the committee favors is expected after the meeting.

It was indicated that Borah's running mate for second choice probably would be an Ohioan picked for his vote-getting possibilities.

Rep. Hamilton Fish, Jr., of New York, who attended the conference here, predicted victory for Borah over Frank Knox, Chicago, in the Illinois primary on April 14.

Details of circulating Borah petitions for Ohio delegates were discussed.

The presence of several herds was reported by suburban dwellers to William Jacklin, warden for the state fish and game department. Jacklin asked that all herds be reported so food could be placed for the animals.

Thousands of deer roamed canyon highways, leading from the city to the mountains. Various public service organizations joined with the fish and game department in feeding the deer.

ELECTION BOARD VOTES TO DIVIDE CITY PRECINCTS

First Ward East, Fourth Ward North Split to Assist Electors

RURAL ACTION DELAYED

Columbus Book Co. Wins Contract to Supply Poll Books

Division of two city precincts, the First Ward east and the Fourth Ward north, were approved by the Board of Elections Saturday afternoon. No divisions were made in the Pickaway and Salt-creek-twp precincts as a result of protests made at the hearing on Wednesday.

First Ward east is divided into East First A and East First B, with McCrea-ave as the dividing line. East First A residents will vote in the United Brethren community house. East First B will vote in the Helvering and Scharenberg filling station at Mingo and Main-sts.

At Limebaugh's, Goeller's

The Fourth Ward north is also divided into A and B sections with Highland alley as the dividing line. The A section will vote at the George Limebaugh store and the B section at Goeller's broom factory.

Hearings on the precinct divisions were arranged after the board received complaints from voters who contended the old arrangement was inconvenient. Under the law the board has the authority to rearrange the precincts when 450 or more votes are cast at the last preceding election to provide for the convenience of voters. The large precincts also took longer to count and delayed returns.

No complaints were made on the division of the city precincts.

To Buy Poll Books

The contract for supplying the poll books for the primary and general election was awarded the Columbus Blank Book Co. Their bid was not disclosed. Two other companies, the F. J. Herr Printing Co., Columbus, and the Johnson-Watson Co., submitted bids. (4½vonzlbgior)

VETERAN FACES GENERAL ARMY COURT MARTIAL

Col. McMullen Threatens to "Blow Lid" Off Capital

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17—(UP)—Col. Joseph I. McMullen, veteran of 40 years' active service in the U. S. Army, goes on trial today before a general court martial on charges which his defenders declare will "blow the lid off" a political scandal in Washington.

He is charged, under the 96th article of war relating to "offenses against good order and military discipline," with having accepted fees and reward from Joseph Silverman, Jr., New York dealer in surplus army materials, while on active service in the judge advocate general's department of the Army, and a legal adviser to the assistant secretary of war.

Fees Rewards Voted

He was given fees and rewards, the prosecution charges, in payment for legal services to Silverman and the corporations in which Silverman was interested, at a time when Silverman was attempting to obtain concessions under contracts with the war department.

McMullen is the second high-ranking Army officer to be tried within recent months on charges of accepting fees or loans from corporations or persons doing business with the War department while on active service. Col. Alexander E. Williams, former assistant quartermaster general, was dismissed from the army after conviction several months ago on charges of receiving a loan from a person interested in doing business with the war department.

Williams' court martial was secret. McMullen's trial was thrown open to the public at the defendant's specific request. Court martial rules provide that if the accused demands a public trial the court can be closed only for reasons deemed by the presiding officer to outweigh the defendant's request.

Oddities in Nation's News

DUCKS FIGHT FOR WATER

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—(UP)—Game wardens reported today that thousands of starving sea gulls and wild ducks on the frozen Long Island shores are fighting aerial battles daily for possession of open water spaces in the ice. Warden David H. W. Benson said he had seen more than 2,000 ducks and gulls in aerial combat, "with feathers filling the air."

PRISON HELPS MEN

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Feb. 17.—(UP)—Prisoners committed to the Leavenworth prison almost immediately show physical and mental improvement, according to Warden Fred B. Zerst. Fat men lose excess weight, thin ones gain, and worried men find a haven from circumstances that harry them.

"When the prisoners enter this institution," Warden Zerst said, "they leave behind the nerve-racking experiences of their crimes and trials. The immediate reaction is relief. Their trial is over. Their fate for the time being is settled. They can relax."

SALESMAN NEEDS HELP

NERVOUS WIFE AIDS

CLEVELAND, Feb. 17.—(UP)—Police are looking for a motorist who had "to see my wife a minute, she's getting nervous." At least, that's what he told hospital attendants after he had carried in Mrs. Mollie Schneider whom he had run down. No one obtained his name or license number.

Moving Season Nearing in Community

By FRANKLIN KIBLER

First scrimmages of that great American spring-time sport "Residential Puss in the Corner" will open locally in the near future.

Residents, both city and rural, have inaugurated their annual inquiring and scouting expeditions and are making arrangements to desert the old homesteads and cast their lots under different street and route numbers.

Trucks Heaped High

The last week in February finds many rural residents hitting the highways with their stock trucks heaped high with everything from the living room furniture, bed springs and kitchen stove to Willie's goat or crates of mother's prize leghorns.

On the farm the moving game is played on a much larger scale than in the city. In addition to the household articles there's the stored grain, livestock and implements to make the journey. Many farmers, making short moves and owning no trucks, still use their farm wagons to become tenants under new landlords.

Last March the Circleville Transfer Co., managed 50 rural moves and 20 in the city. Spring moves are already being booked with the company.

First warm spring days and the house-cleaning fever seem to add impetus to the city "shifts." One move in Circleville ordinarily causes about five others and the telephone, light, gas and water companies are kept busy keeping track of "who" is moving "where."

Pills in Flower Boxes

Shifting the dog, cat or canary bird to new headquarters, hunting shaving cream in the canned fruit barrel and picking headache pills out of flower boxes is no elementary business either in the city or country. Where the various household articles "go in" travel "around and around" and "come out" is not so simple to explain in moving as in an orchestral instrument.

Dad's favorite fishing lures tangle with the dish rags mother's comb and brush set are lost for several days and children usually want the toys that are packed on the bottom of the box as soon as they land in the new homestead.

In the wake of the moving season follows the "gimme" season on landlords, a game largely based on testing the house owner's resistance. This game centers largely on paint, wallpaper and the general spring "fixins."

The housing problem in Circleville in recent years has become one of major proportions. Many newcomers have been unable to find suitable homes. Last fall a moving campaign struck the city and in two weeks more than 20 moves were reported.

Closing of the moving season should be followed by a "great your neighbor" campaign.

The pear would rival the apple in production and probably out-yield this fruit were it possible to control the pear blight.

BAINBRIDGE WINS TIFF IN UTILITY PLANT DISPUTE

Common Pleas Judge Rules
Bond Sale Ordinance Free
From Referendum

Bainbridge village officials won a victory in two of several cases involving the village light and power plant improvements, Saturday, when Common Pleas Judge Wilbur M. McKenzie decided that ordinances for sale of bonds and for advertising for bids for the improvement were not subject to referendum.

Among other cases involving the same improvement are two which Defense Attorney Phil D. Butler says may affect every municipality in the state which attempts to construct its own utility system.

Sold Conditionally

New machinery was installed in the Bainbridge utility plant some three years under legislation to pay the Fairbanks-Morse Co. for the improvement under the conditional sales plan.

Bainbridge taxpayers attacked the constitutionality of this plan, and the courts held against it.

Officials of Bainbridge then proceeded on the mortgage bonds plan provided in the constitution by amendment in 1912 and issued $28,000 worth of bonds.

File Taxpayers' Suit

The mortgage bond method of payment was attacked in injunction suits filed Worley W. 2-in-Moore and Omar A. Knisley, taxpayers, still pending before the common pleas court.

"If this method is held illegal," Attorney Butler says, "cities, towns and villages of Ohio will be at the mercy of the public utility interests and will have no other means to finance their own utility plants except by the issuance of general bonds to be retired by tax collections."

Since the improvements were made at Bainbridge, $8,000 in earnings have accumulated but have been tied up by litigation.

state on the relationship of Charles E. Higgins and Clarence Knisley against G. F. Wolfe, clerk of the village council, and other for mandamus to compel a referendum on the two bond and advertising ordinances.

The plaintiffs claimed that although the ordinances were passed as emergency measures, the emergency could be attacked as not justified.

Following a recent supreme court decision, Judge McKenzie held that the power to decide whether an emergency exists resides in the village council; that it is a legislative and not a judicial function unless fraud is shown; and that the ordinances are not subject to referendum.

Phillips To Appeal

Attorney John P. Phillips, Jr., representing the plaintiffs, announced his intention to appeal the cases and bond was fixed at $500 on each action.

Once again the Household Editor and the judges were swamped under a deluge of recipes for the third week of the contest. This mounting interest in recipes and our weekly cash awards is very satisfying.

One lady, a believer of the old saw, "Proof of the pudding is in the eating" brought her recipe to our office with an ample supply of exactly what the recipe called for . . . Oatmeal Cookies. They were immediately awarded "first prize" by the office force and printers alike, so we were afraid to pass any along to the judges for fear we would be tampering with true justice. Anyway WE know that your recipe is OK and thanks a lot for the delicious samples, Mrs. Merriman.

Now, look at the prize winners for this week. Checks for these ladies are waiting in this office. Kindly call for them this week.

Home town educators think she is a remarkable child. She first talked in sentences at the age of eight months. She can tell the time, count up to 10 and when the American Legion held a baby contest in Portsmouth last November she was judged 96 per cent perfect.

ONION AND ORANGE SALAD IS GOOD—IF YOU LIKE IT

By MRS. MARY MORTON
Menu Hint
Savory Leg of Lamb
Beans a la Bretonne
Canned Peas
Orange and Onion Salad
Chocolate Angel Food Cake

You will not like the salad unless you like onions and they agree with you. Even then, the combination of orange and onion may not appeal to you. Try it, anyway, however, as you may decide it is delicious.

Today's Recipes

Savory Leg of Lamb—Select a leg of lamb and have it prepared "French style"—that is, have the meat removed from the leg bone. This can be done in the market. Rub the entire surface with a crushed clove of garlic and with mixed salt and pepper. Dredge flour over the lean portion. Place on a rack with the skin side down and roast in a moderately slow oven (300-350 degrees, Fahrenheit). Add to pan an onion stuck with three cloves. Allow about 30 minutes to the pound to cook.

Beans a la Bretonne.—Pick over one pound white beans. Wash and drain. Soak over night. Drain the beans and put in a kettle with one quart of water. Add a kitchen bouquet, two cloves inserted in a small onion. Bring to a boil, then simmer until tender, adding one teaspoon salt, a ham bone, or a small piece of scalded salt pork. Drain well. Remove bone, onion and bouquet. Simmer three shallots, or a little onion, chopped fine, for a few minutes in a little melted butter. Add two-thirds cup tomato puree and a small clove of garlic, thinly sliced. Let boil for ten minutes. Turn the beans into the sauce, stir gently. Season with salt and pepper, turn into a hot dish and sprinkle with minced parsley.

Orange and Onion Salad.—Four oranges, one-half onion, minced; ten olives, chopped; lettuce. Peel oranges, being careful to remove all white bits of skin. Cut in even and rather thick, slices, removing the interior tendons. Arrange on lettuce and cover with the mixture of minced onion and olives. Use either mayonnaise or French dressing.

Chocolate Angel Food Cake.—Sift one-half cup cocoa with two-thirds cup cake flour four or five times. Beat one and one-fourth cups egg whites until foamy, add one teaspoon cream of tartar and a few grains of salt and continue beating until stiff, but not dry. Sift in sugar gradually, beating constantly. Add one-half teaspoon vanilla and fold in sifted flour and cocoa. Bake about one hour, gradually increasing the heat.

CAMPBELL, STATE LEGION COMMANDER, IS IMPROVED

CINCINNATI, O., Feb. 17 — (UP)—Improvement was reported today in the condition of Milton D. Campbell, Ohio American Legion commander, injured Saturday when his automobile skidded and overturned near here.

OFFICIAL DENIES HE'S REFORMER; HITS DICTATORS

CHILLICOTHE, Feb. 17— Advised Saturday morning that certain "reforming" groups were planning to insist that he next clean up "card games" in his campaign to eliminate gambling devices here, Mayor James E. Ford declared that they'd better not try to tell me what to do.

"I've been trying to make it plain all along that I'm no reformer," stated the mayor. "I'm trying to rid the city of 'mechanical pick-pockets,' but I'm not going to have either side think they can dictate to me what to do."

He said he had received numerous requests to "loosen up" on his "gambling devices" edict of Friday, but intends to "stand pat."

C. A. C. TO MEET MARYSVILLE '5' IN TONIGHT'S GO

Invading Team Includes Stars; Preliminary Starting at 7:30 to Be Fast

Two good basketball games are on the schedule for this evening at the Circleville Athletic Club with the varsity team to meet the fast Marysville Tigers and the C. A. C. Juniors playing Bobb Clothiers of Columbus, one of the best amateur teams in the Capital city.

The initial contest will get under way at 7:30 o'clock with the varsity contest to start about an hour later.

Marysville is bringing a good record to the local court. It has played some fine central Ohio teams and has come out on top in nearly all of them. Several ex-collegians are found on the Marysville roster.

The Athletic club team will probably consist of Terhune and Zell at forwards, Barnes at center, Merriman and Walker at guards, with Berger, Eby, Parks, Gordon and Hegele ready for action.

The local crew has defeated Chillicothe and Washington C. H. in its last two starts.

MONROE YOUTHS HAND KINGSTON SURPRISE PILL

Monroe -two cagers pulled a surprise Saturday evening by handing Kingston's boys their first defeat on their home court this year. The score was 23-17 and indicates that Monroe may provide Ashville a tough competition in their meeting in the county tournament. Monroe led Ashville for more than half way last Friday but lost the lead in the third period.

The defeat of the Kingston boys was overshadowed by the 49-13 victory of the girls, about the thirty-fifth consecutive game the Ross-co lassies have knocked off. Terflinger and Holloway carried the load for Forrest Brown's Youths, the center tallying nine points and the forward seven. Long, sharpshooting guard, could not hit the hoop.

Vernia, Chillicothe football coach, refereed.

KESSLER NEARS LEAD IN SCORING CONTEST

CHICAGO, Feb. 17—(UP)—Bill Haarlou, Chicago captain and forward, continued to lead the individual scorers in the Big Ten basketball race today but his average per game is less than that of Bob Kessler, Purdue.

Haarlou has scored 106 points in nine games, an average of 11½. Kessler has made 100 points in eight games, an average of 12½.

The Maroon star was held to two baskets by Iowa Saturday night while Kessler was getting 11 points against Northwestern.

DEACON LITZ ENTERS BIG SPEEDWAY EVENT

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Feb. 17—The man mountain of motors is again ahead of the field in the entry-blank race.

A. B. "Deacon" Litz, 235 pounds of nifty pilot, is the first to enter the annual 500-mile automobile classic at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway next May 30th, with his big charger.

Litz has selected a fly-weight, elbow-proof companion, Louis Browning to ride with him.

About This And That In Many Sports

You Pick Winner ***

This column is always open for predictions but for some reason the janitor can't seem to get anyone to mention a possible winner in the forthcoming county tournament except Ashville boys—"How can any team in the county beat them?" is the current answer, but our response to that is: "It seems that every county tournament produces a giant-killer, usually some team that has done only fairly well during the season" ***

Remember Scioto?

Last year Scioto came through to bump New Holland after the Bulldogs had eliminated a seemingly invincible Ashville team—Scioto had an ordinary ball club as was shown in the next game when Darwin, boasting a star in Green, won to cap the title ***

Six May Surprise

The tournament this year will see about six basketball teams capable of surprising anyone—Pickaway-two with two brilliant forwards, Monroe with a well-balanced and dangerous outfit, Scioto with a bunch of demon all-handlers, Walnut with a band of boys that might come to life and surprise someone, Williamsport with the hardest driving team in the county, and Atlanta with a true star in Campbell may upset anyone—Most guessers pick Ashville and New Holland to get into the finals—but you never can tell ***

Ashville Finds Young

Now take the girls' tournament—Darby has led the whole way and looked mighty good in turning back New Holland last Friday. BUT Walnut-two beat the Derby girls on their own floor—Ashville came strong after starting slowly and Pickaway has had a pretty good record all year—Ashville was just another team until the coach learned a girl named Young, sister of Chuck Young, varsity center, and of Mary Young, who starred at center several years, could hit the hoop with reckless abandon ***

Protest is Denied

Russell Stobelson, superintendent of the Muhlenberg-two school, reports his girls' team did not claim a forfeit from Salt Creek-two, but was counting on playing tonight with the opportunity of boosting its total to eight games won and four lost—Muhlenberg was eliminated from the tournament through the draw ***

FOOTBALL RULES GROUP SUGGESTS MINOR CHANGES

PALM SPRINGS, Calif., Feb. 17—(UP)—First session of the National Football Rules committee to be held west of Philadelphia ended today with only two major changes in regulations written into the 1936 gridiron code.

After three days of secret meetings, the committee disclosed:

1. A blocked kick which did not pass the line of scrimmage hereafter would be a "free ball" which may be advanced by either side if recovered before it is "dead." Previously the kicking team could not advance the ball when its punts were blocked.

2. The "slow whistle" was eliminated because it apparently resulted in too many injuries. Previously ending of a play was delayed to give the offensive team more latitude for lateral passes.

A minor change was made in rules governing the forward pass, expected to be drastically altered at the meeting. The board decided only that use of "screen" players should be tightened.

Players ineligible to receive a pass may not advance beyond the point where the pass is caught, intercepted, or falls incomplete, nor may ineligible players "obstruct the view of any opponent."

Violation of the new "screening" rule will carry the same penalty as now applied for pass interference.

MAX BAER PLANS FIGHT COMEBACK

1,000 Look on as Ex-Champ Resumes His Training

OAKLAND, Cal., Feb. 17—(UP)—Max Baer definitely is going to stage a ring comeback and he'll be heavyweight champion of the world again in a year and a half—according to Max Baer.

"I'll be ready to fight again inside of three months," Baer announced as he pulled on the gloves for his first workout since Joe Louis annihilated him in four rounds in their New York bout.

Overweight and considerably slower by virtue of his 228 pounds, the former champion boxed Frankie Hammer, a heavy-weight, and Jack London and Hugh Wedge, middleweights. He demonstrated the punch with which he floored Primo Carnera to win the championship by dropping London. The 1,000 persons who packed Jimmy Duffy's gym were adequate indication that Baer still hasn't lost all attraction as a crowd pleaser.

As usual, he wound up his workout by clowning with Tony Felice, a wrestler.

But future clowning will be restricted to the sort he displayed yesterday, Max insisted.

"I've quit the bright lights once and for all," he claimed. "I haven't touched a drink in two weeks. I've reduced cigarettes to two a day. I've done a lot of road work and walking. My big problem is the hands."

"That's what licked me in my fights with Braddock and Louis. That and the playboy stuff."

Max believes he can be in shape within a month and he wants Phil Brubaker, the 21-year-old Dinuba, Calif., heavyweight prodigy, for his first bout. Brubaker defeated King Levinsky Friday night in a 10-round battle, twice flooring the Chicago fish peddler.

The praise with which ring critics have greeted Brubaker's steady advance into the heavyweight top flight apparently aroused some jealousy in the Baer breast.

"So you're already saying he can lick me?" Baer demanded indignantly. "Well, I'll be ready to fight him in two months—maybe six weeks."

PURDUE'S TEAM LEADS BIG TEN

Defeat of Indiana By Bucks Helps Boilermakers

CHICAGO, Feb. 17—(UP)—Undeclared in eight games, victorious over all its opponents at least once and superior offensively to every team in the league, Purdue university thoroughly dominated the Big Ten basketball race today.

Until last week, Purdue had forced to share honors with Indiana. But Ohio State solved that problem, at least temporarily, by defeating the Hoosiers at Columbus, 43 to 34.

It was the first loss in eight starts for Indiana and it came while Purdue was trouncing Northwestern, 31 to 27, at Lafayette.

The Boilermakers have the best offensive record in the conference, averaging 42 points a game, and are second only to Illinois defensively. Purdue's opponents have averaged 26½ points per game while Illinois foes have averaged only 23.

Northwestern put on one of the gamiest rallies ever seen at Lafayette in the final half of the game Saturday night, but it fell short of victory. With four minutes left to play the Wildcats were trailing 25 to 15. With four seconds left to play they were behind 29 to 27. Kessler sewed it up then with a sleeper as the gun went off.

Indiana was unfortunate enough to run into Ohio State when the Buckeyes were hot. Dye, of the Ohioans, held Ken Gunning, the Hoosiers' sharp-shooting forward, to one field goal. Warren Whitlinger, Buckeye captain, made six baskets and four free throws.

Northwestern will get another crack at Purdue next Saturday and the Wildcats will have the advantage of their home floor. They seem to be the only hope to upset the leader.

Tonight's games will send Michigan against Indiana at Bloomington; Wisconsin against Iowa at Iowa City and Illinois against Northwestern at Evanston.

The university elimination play will take place this week.

SKATERS OF U. S. FIFTH IN BERLIN OLYMPIC JOUSTS

GARMISCH - PARTENKIRCHEN, Germany, Feb. 17—(UP)—American athletes scattered to various European cities today and a few started home after yesterday's ceremonial wind-up of the fourth Olympic winter games.

They left here after 11 days of competition in which Norway's lusty band rolled up 121 points to run away with the unofficial Olympic championship while the U. S. performers faded from the world championship of 1932 to a fifth-place berth in the team standing with only 35½ points.

Most of the American representatives will participate in other European meets before returning home. The ice hockey team which was beaten yesterday by Canada's sextet, 1-0, thereby allowing Great Britain to coast into the hockey championship—left today for Prague. After competing there they will play in Munich. The puck chasers are scheduled tentatively to sail for New York on March 11.

SHIBE, BASEBALL FIGURE, IS DEAD IN PHILADELPHIA

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 17—(UP)—Baseball circles speculated today on who will succeed S. Shibe, as ruler of the Philadelphia Athletics. He died last night of a complicated ailment.

The veteran organizer and technical expert in the sporting equipment business was 70 years old.

The choice of a successor was balanced between two persons prominently identified with the meteoric rise and fall of the once-powerful A's. They were Connie Mack, 73-year old manager and guiding genius, and John B. Shibe, brother of the late president and vice-president of the organization.

THEATRES AT THE CLIFTONA

The outstanding comedy hit of the new film season sped into town Sunday when "Strike Me Pink," Eddie Cantor's sixth annual screen musical for Samuel Goldwyn opened at the Cliftona Theatre with Ethel Merman, Sally Eilers, Parkyakarkus, the Greek dialectician of radio fame, William Frawley and the loveliest Goldwyn Girls ever aiding and abetting the proceedings.

Magnificently mounted in the true Goldwyn tradition, this fast-moving and eye-gladdening fun festival presents the saucer-eyed comedian in his funniest role as the alternately mouse-like and aggressive Eddie Pink, graduate of a correspondence school course in dominant personality development, entitled "Man or Mouse, What Are You?"

Ethel Merman is grand and puts over some of the film's smash Harold Arlen-Lew Brown song hits in her inimitable style. You'll be hearing plenty of "First You Have Me High, Then You Have Me Low," "Shake It Off," "The Calabash Pipe" and "The Lady Dances."

Fertile Enderta Region Falls; Ethiopians in Denial

ADDIS ABABA, Feb. 17.—(UP)—Italian claims to a major victory south of Makale were officially denied today.

Copyright 1936 BY United Press. FIELD HEADQUARTERS, ITALIAN NORTHERN ARMY, Feb. 17.—(UP)—Italian regulars and Fascist militia men are mopping up the cloud veiled, saddle shaped hill of Amba Aradam today after their biggest victory of the Italian-Ethiopian war.

The remnants of a demoralized Ethiopian force of 80,000 men are trying to sneak in small groups through the Italian lines to join the main armies to the south while the jubilant Italians toil over the rocky hill, searching its many caves, to rout out stragglers.

Before the Italians lies a clear path to the rugged mass of Amba Alagi, 18 1/2 miles farther south, which is expected to be the next objective and perhaps the final one before the rains of mid-March.

The Italians command the fertile and strategic Enderta region before Makale and in commanding it they can control all the passes to the Tembien region behind their lines in which for months lurked warriors of Ras Siyoum to raid them.

MAY RE-ELECTED LOAN PRESIDENT

Directors of National Farm Association in Meeting

Directors elected at the annual meeting of the Pickaway-co National Farm Loan association Saturday are Ralph E. May of Circleville-twp, H. C. Hines of Walnut-twp, Ira C. Fisher of Walnut-twp, S. J. Kendrick of Monroe-twp, and E. H. Fetherolf of Saltcreek-twp. Stockholders in attendance numbered 45, or about 31 per cent of the membership of the organization. Total attendance of 65 included 20 visitors.

Immediately following the meeting the board organized for the forthcoming year by re-electing Ralph E. May as president and Ira C. Fisher as vice president. Miss Ethel Brobst of the Farm Bureau office was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Declaring that an informed and interested membership is essential to the continued success of any farmers' cooperative organization, L. L. Antle of the Federal Land Bank of Louisville, urged stockholders to regard seriously their duties as members and to use their best judgment in choosing directors capable of managing the association and able to devote sufficient time and energy to the task.

Mr. Antle described the Farm Credit administration and the complete system which it affords to farmers through the land bank and national farm loan associations for land mortgage credit, the production credit system and the intermediate credit bank for short-term farm operating credit and the Louisville Bank for Cooperatives for the financial service to well-managed farmers' marketing and purchasing organizations.

The annual report of secretary-treasurer Miss Brobst showed that at the close of 1935 the association had 146 members with farm mortgage loans outstanding to the amount of $794,000, in addition to which 111 Land Bank Commission loans for $300,400 have been made and are being serviced by the associations, a total volume of $1,094,400 outstanding.

The report showed that but three members of the association are delinquent in payments to a total amount of only $1,095.

Others held by police are Walter Artrip, 24, Long-ave, and Walter Colvin, 25, E. Ohio-st.

prison in darkness and a drizzling rain.

"I was impressed with Mr. Leibowitz' activities," Hoffman said when the lawyer and a detective left his home at 11:15 p. m.

Both Leibowitz and Hoffman through a secretary—refused to say whether Hauptmann had confessed a part in the crime of which he has maintained his innocence.

"I will make no comment about that," Leibowitz said. Then he added, after a pause: "But I will get to the bottom of this before I finish. I think."

Leibowitz entered the case last week with the financial backing of Mrs. McLean, owner of the $1,000,000 Hope diamond and beneficiary of her husband's $5,000,000 trust estate. Mrs. McLean has been interested in the Lindbergh kidnapping since its occurrence. She lost $100,000 to Gaston B. Means who persuaded her that he had made contact with the kidnapers and could obtain the baby by paying ransom. Mrs. McLean gave him the ransom, then Means' claims were proved fraudulent by discovery of the child's body. He is serving a prison term for the swindle.

Pastor in Jail Cell

Playing upon Hauptmann's emotions in every possible way to induce him to talk freely, Leibowitz took the Rev. John Matthiesen to the death house with him. Matthiesen, pastor of a Trenton Lutheran church, is Hauptmann's most trusted confidante. His presence when Leibowitz accused Hauptmann of telling "silly cock and bull stories," threatened to let him die unless he confessed, begged him to think of his wife and son, and promised him life if he would talk, was calculated to break the Bronx carpenter's nerve.

"Hauptmann said I was 'worse as Wilentz,'" Leibowitz said, referring to Attorney General David T. Wilentz, Hauptmann's prosecutor.

Matthiesen refused to answer any questions about what was said during the three hours, 40 minutes. Leibowitz said of him as they death house. He seemed weary and so dispirited as he stood in the rain outside the prison while Leibowitz fended off interrogators.

"Keep track of this man," Leibowitz said of him as they drove off. He's important to this case."

Leibowitz announced that he would return to the death house "early this week" to take advantage of the psychology of the moment.

T.V.A. WINS SUPREME COURT APPROVAL

EIGHT JUSTICES SIGN RULING AS READ BY HUGHES

McReynolds Only Dissenter in Tennessee Case; Scope of Decision Wide

FINDING NEW DEAL AID

Rights of Government Declared Three-Fold By Chief of High Tribunal

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—The Supreme Court today upheld constitutionality of the New Deal's vast Tennessee Valley Authority experiment on all points placed in issue in the present test. The opinion of the Court, read by Chief Justice Charles Evans Hughes, was so sweeping that the New Deal power and legal experts immediately asserted it had given the right of way to the New Deal's other vast power experiments.

The vote was 8 to 1. The lone dissenter was Justice James McReynolds. Four justices, however, presented a concurring opinion in connection with the majority decision read by Chief Justice Hughes.

"The ruling," according to Edward J. Foley Jr., chief PWA counsel, "upheld the right of the government to improve streams for navigation by dam projects. It declared constitutional the government's program to sell the power the projects created by water storage."

Hughes upheld the following rights of the government:

1. The right to build Wilson dam, key structure of the T. V. A. under war power and powers of aiding navigation.
2. The right to sell power produced at such dams.
3. The right to build transmission lines to transport such powers to a reasonable market.

Supreme court ruling on T.V.A. brought smiles on the faces of Pickaway-co farmers who are interested in the rural electrification program.

Source of power has been the only factor holding back the local program, the farmers were recently told by state Farm Bureau officials, and if no arrangements can be made with power companies there is a possibility T.V.A. power will be extended through this district.

Approximately 1,278 farms are listed under the country's R.E.A. program as potential users covering 391 miles of roadways. The project is listed at $407,359.

They attacked Night Jailer Frank Johnson. Three trustees aided Johnson. All four were wounded by knives Firtzie and Gambon had taken from the jail kitchen.

Sudden Crumbling of Ice Ends Stream Spectacle

Nature Pulls Trick on Many Who Visit Derby Vicinity to View
Jam; Current Proves Stronger Than Dynamite

Like a disappearing act performed by a magician, nature played a trick on spectators at Dewey park Saturday afternoon that left them dumfounded.

In 15 minutes she crumbled the huge ice jam that threatened the old covered bridge and carried it away in the swift current. The swollen stream even picked up huge cakes along the banks and swept them to the river.

Charles Mowery, district highway superintendent, reported the break-up was one of the most unusual spectacles he had ever witnessed.

There was a series of rumblings, the huge cakes of ice began breaking loose, and churning, and before spectators realized what was happening the floes were moving downstream. "Inside the bridge it sounded as if it was going with the jam," Mr. Mowery said.

Mr. Mowery had called a state highway engineer in Columbus about noon and asked him to view the jam and offer suggestions on how it could be removed. The engineer told Mr. Mowery he would be at the bridge in about 45 minutes. Before he arrived the jam had broken and was practically cleared away.

Highway workmen used 25 pounds of dynamite Friday night, opening a gorge through the jam, and planned to start blasting again Saturday afternoon.

After the jam at the bridge broke the jam back of the home of Wayne Hoover about a mile up the stream started breaking up about 2 p. m. The swift current swept under the jam and gradually crumbled it.

Residents of the district and highway workers Saturday morning feared the upper jam would break before the one at the bridge opened. This would have sent the water over a low section of the road near the bridge.

The Scioto river was five and a half feet above normal Monday noon, three feet below the measurement Saturday. Dr. H. R. Clarke reported.

Only small pieces of ice were floating in the current Monday morning. The huge ice jam in Deer creek at Williamsport was still unbroken at noon Monday. It extends both above and below the bridge on Route 22 and offered an unusual spectacle. The creek was reported falling and residents expected the jam would remain for some time.

The triple quartet presented a triple quartet of J. M. Jones, Elliott Moore, Edwin Thomas, Dr. B. R. Bales, Fred G. Dakin, Mack Parrett Jr., Dr. R. F. Lilly, Simon Frank, Joseph Dulskey, E. C. Ebert, Harry Wolf, and Philip Conyers was reputed as one of the best ever assembled in Circleville.

The chorus listed Lloyd Stout, Charles Beck, Joseph Lynch, Harry Myers, Meinhard Crites, R. E. Swope, E. D. L. Preston, Robert Denman, Phil Weimer, Thomas McKenzie, Homer Walters and Roscoe Reid.

The dramatic playlet, "A Night in Rome," was featured by Miller Pontius as Caesar Unanimous; Morris Boggs, as Vesta Unanimous, his daughter; Lawrence Goeller, as Skygactorus, a valiant knight and Vesta's lover. The scene was Caesar's palace and the time 2,000 years ago.

Columbus Book Co. Wins Contract to Supply Poll
Books

Division of two city precincts, the First Ward east and the Fourth Ward north, were approved by the Board of Elections Saturday afternoon. No divisions were made in the Pickaway and Scioto creek-twp precincts as a result of protests made at the hearing on Wednesday.

First Ward east is divided into East First A and East First B with McCrea-ave as the dividing line. East First A reaches to the United Brothers community house. East First B reaches to the Halving station and the filling station at Main-st.

At Linsbaugh's, the Fourth Ward north is divided into A and B with Highland alley as the dividing line. The A precinct reaches to the George Linsbaugh home. The B precinct at the station at Main-st.

Hearings on the precinct divisions were arranged after the board received complaints from voters who contended the old arrangement was inconvenient. Under the law the board has the authority to rearrange the precincts when 450 or more votes are cast at the last preceding election to provide for the convenience of voters. The large precincts also took longer to count and delayed returns.

No complaints were made on the division of the city precincts.

Leaders of Campaign Discuss
Plans in Akron

AKRON, Feb. 17.—(UP)—A speaking tour, beginning the middle of March, will be a part of Senator William E. Borah's campaign for Ohio delegates to the Republican national convention.

The presidential candidate will speak in Youngstown during the week of March 15. Later he will speak in Akron, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Toledo and Columbus.

Plans for the speaking tour were laid at a meeting of Borah-for-president leaders here over the week-end. Former Rep. Royal Johnson of North Dakota represented Borah at the meeting.

Borah delegates-at-large candidates will not be announced until after the meeting of the Republican state central committee at Columbus Tuesday. An expression of which presidential candidate the committee favors is expected after the meeting.

It was indicated that Borah's running mate for second choice probably would be an Ohioan picked for his vote-getting possibilities.

Rep. Hamilton Fish, Jr., of New York, who attended the conference here, predicted victory for Borah over Frank Knox, Chicago, in the Illinois primary on April 14.

Details of circulating Borah petitions for Ohio delegates were discussed.

FACES AL ARMY PORT MARTIAL

McMullen Threatens to "Blow Lid" Off Capital

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17—(UP)—Col. Joseph I. McMullen, 40 years' active service in the U. S. Army, goes on today before a general court martial on charges which his defenders declare will "blow the lid off" a political scandal in Washington.

He is charged, under the 96th article of war relating to "offenses against good order and military discipline," with having accepted fees and reward from Joseph Silverman, Jr., New York dealer in surplus army materials, while on active service in the edge advocate general's department of the Army, and a legal adviser to the assistant secretary of war.

Fees Rewards Voted

He was given fees and rewards, prosecution charges, in payment for legal services to Silverman and the corporations in which Silverman was interested, at a time when Silverman was attempting to obtain concessions under contracts with the war department.

McMullen is the second high-ranking Army officer to be tried within recent months on charges of accepting fees or loans from corporations or persons doing business with the War department while on active service. Col. Alexander E. Williams, former assistant quartermaster general, was convicted several months ago on charges of receiving a loan from a person interested in doing business with the war department.

Williams' court martial was set. McMullen's trial was thrown open to the public at the defendant's specific request. Court martial rules provide that if the accused demands a public trial the court can be closed only for reasons deemed by the presiding officer to outweigh the defendant's request.

Oddities in Nation's News

DUCKS FIGHT FOR WATER

NEW YORK, Feb. 17—(UP)—State wardens reported today that thousands of starving sea gulls and wild ducks on the frozen Long Island shores are fighting aerial battles daily for possession of open water spaces in the ice. Warden David H. W. Benson said he had seen more than 2,000 ducks and geese in aerial combat, "with feathers filling the air."

PRISON HELPS MEN

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Feb. 17—(UP)—Prisoners committed to Leavenworth prison almost immediately show physical and mental improvement, according to Warden Fred B. Zerbst. Fat men lose excess weight, thin ones gain, and worried men find a haven from circumstances that harry them.

"When the prisoners enter this institution," Warden Zerbst said, "they leave behind the nerve-racking experiences of their times and trials. The immediate action is relief. Their trial is over. Their fate for the time being is settled. They can relax."

SALESMAN NEEDS HELP

CHICAGO, Feb. 17—(UP)—Although R. W. Wolfe had a lot of plaster on his face, he didn't want to attempt a hike to Bellefonte, Pa., his next stop as a salesman for a firm that makes foot remedies. He was in a jail today on a charge of holding up a drug store and taking $40 which he said he needed to replace his train fare which he lost in a poker game.

COLD CUTS ROBBERIES

CHICAGO, Feb. 17—(UP)—Record-breaking cold weather was credited today with reducing holdups from an average of 30 to from 28 a day since Jan. 22.

"SPOONERS" ROB, TOO

CLEVELAND, Feb. 17—(UP)—Pearl Hayne, 50, came home early this morning and found a couple "spooning" on her parlor sofa. She told police the youth broke his embrace, struck her over the head with a revolver and fled with her pocketbook containing $30. The girl fled with him.

NERVOUS WIFE AIDS

Moving Season Nearing in Community

By FRANKLIN KIBLER

First scrimmages of that great American spring-time sport "Residential Puss in the Corner" will open locally in the near future.

Residents, both city and rural, have inaugurated their annual inquiring and scouting expeditions and are making arrangements to desert the old homesteads and cast their lots under different street and route numbers.

Trucks Heaped High

The last week in February finds many rural residents hitting the highways with their stock trucks heaped high with everything from the living room furniture, bed springs and kitchen stove to Willie's goat or crates of mother's prize leghorns.

On the farm the moving game is played on a much larger scale than in the city. In addition to the household articles there's the stored grain, livestock and implements to make the journey. Many farmers, making short moves and owning no trucks, still use their farm wagons to become tenants under new landlords.

Last March the Circleville Transfer Co., managed 50 rural moves and 20 in the city. Spring moves are already being booked with the company.

First warm spring days and the house-cleaning fever seem to add impetus to the city "shifts." One move in Circleville ordinarily causes about five others and the telephone, light, gas and water companies are kept busy keeping track of "who" is moving "where."

Pills in Flower Boxes

Shifting the dog, cat or canary bird to new headquarters, hunting shaving cream in the canned fruit barrel and picking headache pills out of flower boxes is no elementary business either in the city or country. Where the various household articles "go in" travel "around and around" and "come out" is not so simple to explain in moving as in an orchestral instrument.

Dad's favorite fishing lures tangle with the dish rags mother's comb and brush set are lost for several days and children usually want the toys that are packed on the bottom of the box as soon as they land in the new homestead.

In the wake of the moving season follows the "gimme" season on landlords, a game largely based on testing the house owner's resistance. This game centers largely on paint, wallpaper and the general spring "fixins."

The housing problem in Circleville in recent years has become one of major proportions. Many newcomers have been unable to find suitable homes. Last fall a moving campaign struck the city and in two weeks more than 20 moves were reported.

Closing of the moving season should be followed by a "great your neighbor" campaign.

The pear would rival the apple in production and probably out-yield this fruit were it possible to control the pear blight.

BAINBRIDGE WINS TIFF IN UTILITY PLANT DISPUTE

Common Pleas Judge Rules Bond Sale Ordinance Free From Referendum

Bainbridge village officials won a victory in two of several cases involving the village light and power plant improvements, Saturday, when Common Pleas Judge Wilbur M. McKenzie decided that ordinances for sale of bonds and for advertising for bids for the improvement were not subject to referendum.

Among other cases involving the same improvement are two which Defense Attorney Phil D. Butler says may affect every municipality in the state which attempts to construct its own utility system.

Sold Conditionally

New machinery was installed in the Bainbridge utility plant some three years under legislation to pay the Fairbanks-Morse Co. for the improvement under the conditional sales plan.

Bainbridge taxpayers attacked the constitutionality of this plan, and the courts held against it.

Officials of Bainbridge then proceeded on the mortgage bonds plan provided in the constitution by amendment in 1912 and issued $26,000 worth of bonds.

File Taxpayers' Suit

The mortgage bond method of payment was attacked in injunction suits filed Worley W. 2-in-Moore and Omar A. Knisley, taxpayers, still pending before the common pleas court.

"If this method is held illegal," Attorney Butler says, "cities, towns and villages of Ohio will be at the mercy of the public utility interests and will have no other means to finance their own utility plants except by the issuance of general bonds to be retired by tax collections."

Since the improvements were made at Bainbridge, $8,000 in earnings have accumulated but have been tied up by litigation.

Mandamus Sought

The actions decided Saturday morning were brought by the state on the relationship of Charles E. Higgins and Clarence Knisley against G. F. Wolfe, clerk of the village council, and other for mandamus to compel a referendum on the two bond and advertising ordinances.

The plaintiffs claimed that although the ordinances were passed as emergency measures, the emergency could be attacked as not justified.

Following a recent supreme court decision, Judge McKenzie held that the power to decide whether an emergency exists resides in the village council; that it is a legislative and not a judicial function unless fraud is shown; and that the ordinances are not subject to referendum.

Phillips To Appeal

Attorney John P. Phillips, jr., representing the plaintiffs, announced his intention to appeal the cases and bond was fixed at $500 on each action.

Interest in Contest Grows

OVER 100 RECIPES ENTERED. . . . MRS. M'MANAMY WINS

Prizes of $3, $2 and $1 will be awarded every week for the three best entries in this recipe contest. All you have to do is select some recipe that you consider a "best" and mail or bring to this office not later than Thursday of this week. Be sure you accompany your recipe with a sales slip from one of the advertisers or a container or wrapper of one of the products advertised.

Those who submitted entries in the past and failed to be among the prize winners are urged to send in more recipes. Do not become discouraged after one attempt. YOUR RECIPE MAY BE A PRIZE WINNER THIS WEEK, and a three dollar check is well worth the effort!

Once again the Household Editor and the judges were swamped under a deluge of recipes for the third week of the contest. This mounting interest in recipes and our weekly cash awards is very satisfying.

One lady, a believer of the old saw, "Proof of the pudding is in the eating" brought her recipe to our office with an ample supply of exactly what the recipe called for . . . Oatmeal Cookies. They were immediately awarded "first prize" by the office force and printers alike, so we were afraid to pass any along to the judges for fear we would be tampering with true justice. Anyway WE know that your recipe is OK and thanks a lot for the delicious samples, Mrs. Merriman.

Now, look at the prize winners for this week. Checks for these ladies are waiting in this office. Kindly call for them this week.

ONION AND ORANGE SALAD IS GOOD—IF YOU LIKE IT

By MRS. MARY MORTON
Menu Hint
Savory Leg of Lamb
Beans a la Bretonne
Canned Peas
Orange and Onion Salad
Chocolate Angel Food Cake

You will not like the salad unless you like onions and they agree with you. Even then, the combination of orange and onion may not appeal to you. Try it, anyway, however, as you may decide it is delicious.

Today's Recipes

Savory Leg of Lamb.—Select a leg of lamb and have it prepared "French style" that is, have the meat removed from the leg bone. This can be done in the market. Rub the entire surface with a crushed clove of garlic and with mixed salt and pepper. Dredge flour over the lean portion. Place in a rack with the skin side down and roast in a moderately slow oven (300-350 degrees, Fahrenheit) at pan an onion stuck with three cloves. Allow about 30 minutes to the pound to cook.

Beans a la Bretonne.—Pick over one pound white beans. Wash and drain. Soak over night. Drain the beans and put in a kettle with one quart of water. Add a kitchen bouquet, two cloves inserted in a small onion. Bring to a boil, then simmer until tender, adding one teaspoon salt, a ham bone, or a small piece of scalded salt pork. Drain well. Remove bone, onion and bouquet. Simmer three shallots, or a little onion, chopped fine, for a few minutes in a little melted butter. Add two-thirds cup tomato puree and a small clove of garlic, thinly sliced. Let boil for ten minutes. Turn the beans into the sauce, stir gently. Season with salt and pepper, turn into a hot dish and sprinkle with minced parsley.

Orange and Onion Salad.—Four oranges, one-half onion, minced; ten olives, chopped; lettuce. Peel oranges, being careful to remove

Crosby to Present of Racing Experts

His Jockey and Trainer to Feature Program
Which Will Also Have Charles Ruggles of Screen

From football stars to symphony conductors Bing Crosby has interviewed the famous personalities who come as guest stars to the Music hall each week and now he adds a millionaire sportsman, Alfred G. Vanderbilt, Vanderbilt's jockey, Johnny Bejsak; and his trainer, J. H. (Bud) Stotter, to the list in the show next Thursday in a concerted attempt to solve the problem of picking winners. For comedy Bing presents Charles Ruggles, Hollywood's hesitant humorist, and for music, two young prodigies of the piano and violin, 11-year-old Leonard Pennario, and 10-year-old Dorothy Wade. The full-hour show will be broadcast over a WEAF-NBC network at 10 p.m.

The four-way interview between Crosby, Vanderbilt, Bejsak and Stotter will be concerned with the Santa Anita Handicap to be run off soon at the California track.

In World of Entertainment

Kitty Carlisle, one of the loveliest of the younger Hollywood actresses, will appear as the guest star with Ben Bernie and All the Lads at 9 p. m.

Although a comparative newcomer in the films, Miss Carlisle has won starring roles in four important pictures. Twice as leading lady to Bing Crosby, and currently the feminine lead in the Marx Brothers' success, "A Night at the Opera," Miss Carlisle's singing has effectively started many songs to national popularity.

"Alone" Week's Best

Miss Carlisle's song, "Alone," was rated first last week in a national magazine's weekly poll. No. 2 was Moon over Miami; No. 3, I Feel Like a Feather in the Breeze, and No. 4 was Lights Out. The Music Goes—etc was No. 6.

OFFICIAL DENIES HE'S REFORMER; HITS DICTATORS

CHILLICOTHE, Feb. 17—Advised Saturday morning that certain "reforming" groups were planning to insist that he next clean up "card games" in his campaign to eliminate gambling devices here, Mayor James E. Ford declared that they'd better not try to tell him what to do.

"I've been trying to make it plain all along that I'm no reformer," stated the mayor. "I'm trying to rid the city of 'mechanical pick-pockets,' but I'm not going to have either side think they can dictate to me what to do."

He said he had received numerous requests to "loosen up" on his "gambling devices" edict of Friday, but intends to "stand pat."

C. A. C. TO MEET
MARYSVILLE '5'
IN TONIGHT'S GO

Invading Team Includes
Stars; Preliminary Starting at 7:30 to Be Fast

Two good basketball games are on the schedule for this evening at the Circleville Athletic Club with the varsity team to meet the fast Marysville Tigers and the C. A. C. Juniors playing Bobb Clothiers of Columbus, one of the best amateur teams in the Capital city.

The initial contest will get under way at 7:30 o'clock with the varsity contest to start about an hour later.

Marysville is bringing a good record to the local court. It has played some fine central Ohio teams and has come out on top in nearly all of them. Several ex-collegians are found on the Marysville roster.

The Athletic club team will probably consist of Terhune and Zell at forwards, Barnes at center, Merriman and Walker at guards, with Berger, Eby, Parks, Gordon and Hegele ready for action.

The local crew has defeated Chillicothe and Washington C. H. in its last two starts.

MONROE YOUTHS
HAND KINGSTON
SURPRISE PILL

Monroe twp cagers pulled a surprise Saturday evening by handing Kingston's boys their first defeat on their home court this year. The score was 23-17 and indicates that Monroe may provide Ashville a tough competition in their meeting in the county tournament. Monroe led Ashville for more than halfway last Friday but lost the lead in the third period.

The defeat of the Kingston boys was overshadowed by the 49-13 victory of the girls, about the thirty-fifth consecutive game the Ross-co lassies have knocked off.

Terflinger and Holloway carried the load for Forrest Brown's Youths, the center tallying nine points and the forward seven. Long, sharpshooting guard, could not hit the hoop.

Vernia, Chillicothe football coach, refereed.

Lineup:

Monroe-23	Kingston-17
E. Walters 6 0 1	Miner 5 0 1
Holloway 3 1 1	Kelly 4 0 0
K. Walters 2 0 2	Strauss 5 0 0
Grover 4 0 0	Ross 5 0 2
Terflinger 4 1 1	Sims 4 0 1
Long 3 0 0	Yable 4 0 2
Hill 2 0 0	Miller 2 0 0
	Gardner 4 0 1

KESSLER NEARS LEAD
IN SCORING CONTEST

CHICAGO, Feb. 17--(UP)--Bill Haarlow, Chicago captain and forward, continued to lead the individual scorers in the Big Ten basketball race today but his average per game is less than that of Bob Kessler, Purdue.

Haarlow has scored 106 points in nine games, an average of 11.8. Kessler has made 100 points in eight games, an average of 12.5.

The Maroon star was held to two baskets by Iowa Saturday night while Kessler was getting 11 points against Northwestern.

DEACON LITZ ENTERS
BIG SPEEDWAY EVENT

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Feb. 17--The man mountain of motors is again ahead of the field in the entry-blank race.

A. B. "Deacon" Litz, 235 pounds of nifty pilot, is the first to enter the annual 500-mile automobile classic at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway next May 30th, with his big charger.

Litz has selected a fly-weight, elbow-proof companion, Louis Browning to ride with him.

About This And That
In Many Sports

You Pick Winner ***

This column is always open for predictions but for some reason the janitor can't seem to get anyone to mention a possible winner in the forthcoming county tournament except Ashville boys--"How can any team in the county beat them?" is the current answer, but our response to that is: "It seems that every county tournament produces a giant-killer, usually some team that has done only fairly well during the season" ***

Remember Scioto?

Last year Scioto came through to bump New Holland after the Bulldogs had eliminated a seemingly invincible Ashville team--Scioto had an ordinary bull club as was shown in the next game when Darby, boasting a star in Green, won to cap the title

Six May Surprise

The tournament this year will see about six basketball teams capable of surprising anyone--Pickaway-twp with two brilliant forwards, Monroe with a well-balanced and dangerous outfit, Scioto with a bunch of demon all-handlers, Walnut with a band of boys that might come to life and surprise someone, Williamsport with the hardest driving team in the county, and Atlanta with a true star in Campbell may upset anyone--Most guessers pick Ashville and New Holland to get into the finals--but you never can tell ***

Ashville Finds Young

Now take the girls' tournament--Darby has led the whole way and looked mighty good in turning back New Holland last Friday, BUT Walnut-twp beat the Derby girls on their own floor--Ashville came strong after starting slowly and Pickaway has had a pretty good record all year--Ashville was just another team until the coach learned a girl named Young, sister of Chuck Young, varsity center, and of Mary Young, who starred at center several years, could hit the hoop with reckless abandon

Protest is Denied

Russell Stebbelton, superintendent of the Muhlengren-twp school, reports his girls' team did not claim a forfeit from Saltcreek-twp, but was counting on playing tonight with the opportunity of boosting its total to eight games won and four lost--Muhlengren was eliminated from the tournament through the draw ***

FOOTBALL RULES
GROUP SUGGESTS
MINOR CHANGES

PALM SPRINGS, Calif., Feb. 17--(UP)--First session of the National Football Rules committee to be held west of Philadelphia ended today with only two major changes in regulations written into the 1936 gridiron code.

After three days of secret meetings, the committee disclosed:

1. A blocked kick which did not pass the line of scrimmage hereafter would be a "free ball" which may be advanced by either side if recovered before it is "dead." Previously the kicking team could not advance the ball when its punts were blocked.

2. The "slow whistle" was eliminated because it apparently resulted in too many injuries. Previously ending of a play was delayed to give the offensive team more latitude for lateral passes.

A minor change was made in rules governing the forward pass, expected to be drastically altered at the meeting. The board decided only that use of "screen" players should be tightened.

Players ineligible to receive a pass may not advance beyond the point where the pass is caught, intercepted, or falls incomplete, nor may ineligible players "obstruct the view of any opponent."

Violation of the new "screening" rule will carry the same penalty as now applied for pass interference.

MAX BAER PLANS
FIGHT COMEBACK

1,000 Look on as Ex-Champ
Resumes His Training

OAKLAND, Cal., Feb. 17--(UP)--Max Baer definitely is going to stage a ring comeback and he'll be heavyweight champion of the world again in a year and a half--according to Max Baer.

"I'll be ready to fight again inside of three months," Baer announced as he pulled on the gloves for his first workout since Joe Louis annihilated him in four rounds in their New York bout.

Overweight and considerably slower by virtue of his 228 pounds, the former champion boxed Frankie Hammer, a heavyweight, and Jack London and Hugh Wedge, middleweights. He demonstrated the punch with which he floored Primo Carnera to win the championship by dropping London. The 1,000 persons who packed Jimmy Duffy's gym were adequate indication that Baer still hasn't lost all attraction as a crowd pleaser.

As usual, he wound up his workout by clowning with Tony Felice, a wrestler.

But future clowning will be restricted to the sort he displayed yesterday, Max insisted.

"I've quit the bright lights once and for all," he claimed. "I haven't touched a drink in two weeks. I've reduced cigarettes to two a day. I've done a lot of road work and walking. My big problem is the hands."

"That's what licked me in my fights with Braddock and Louis. That and the playboy stuff."

Max believes he can be in shape within a month and he wants Phil Brubaker, the 21-year-old Dinuba, Calif., heavyweight prodigy, for his first bout. Brubaker defeated King Levinsky Friday night in a 10-round battle, twice flooring the Chicago fish peddler.

The praise with which ring critics have greeted Brubaker's steady advance into the heavyweight top flight apparently aroused some jealousy in the Baer breast.

"So they're already saying he can lick me?" Baer demanded indignantly. "Well, I'll be ready to fight him in two months--maybe six weeks."

THE last desperate burst of speed by which Joe Mangano, star miler, wins races, calls upon the athlete's last resources of physical energy and endurance. Candid camera photo shows the tension in Mangano's neck muscles as he comes pounding down to the tape.

PURDUE'S TEAM
LEADS BIG TEN

Defeat of Indiana By Bucks
Helps Boilermakers

CHICAGO, Feb. 17--(UP)--Undeclared in eight games, victorious over all its opponents at least once and superior offensively to every team in the league, Purdue university thoroughly dominated the Big Ten basketball race today.

Until last week, Purdue had forced to share honors with Indiana. But Ohio State solved that problem, at least temporarily, by defeating the Hoosiers at Columbus, 43 to 34.

It was the first loss in eight starts for Indiana and it came while Purdue was trouncing Northwestern, 31 to 27, at Lafayette.

The Boilermakers have the best offensive record in the conference, averaging 42 points a game, and are second only to Illinois defensively. Purdue's opponents have averaged 26 1/2 points per game while Illinois foes have averaged only 23.

Northwestern put on one of the gamest rallies ever seen at Lafayette in the final half of the game Saturday night, but it fell short of victory. With four minutes left to play the Wildcats were trailing 25 to 15. With four seconds left to play they were behind 29 to 27. Kessler sewed it up then with a sleeper as the gun went off.

Indiana was unfortunate enough to run into Ohio State when the Buckeyes were hot. Dye, of the Ohioans, held Ken Gunning, the Hoosiers' sharp-shooting forward, to one field goal. Warren Whitlinger, Buckeye captain, made six baskets and four free throws.

Northwestern will get another crack at Purdue next Saturday and the Wildcats will have the advantage of their home floor. They seem to be the only hope to upset the leader.

Tonight's games will send Michigan against Indiana at Bloomington; Wisconsin against Iowa at Iowa City and Illinois against Northwestern at Evanston.

SKATERS OF U. S.
FIFTH IN BERLIN
OLYMPIC JOUSTS

GARMISCH - PARTENKIRCHEN, Germany, Feb. 17--(UP)--American athletes scattered to various European cities today and a few started home after yesterday's ceremonial wind-up of the fourth Olympic winter games.

They left here after 11 days of competition in which Norway's husky band pulled up 121 points to run away with the unofficial Olympic championship while the U. S. performers faded from the world championship of 1932 to a fifth-place berth in the team standing with only 35 1/2 points.

Most of the American representatives will participate in other European meets before returning home. The ice hockey team which was beaten yesterday by Canada's sextet, 1-0, thereby allowing Great Britain to coast into the hockey championship--left today for Prague. After competing there they will play in Munich. The puck chasers are scheduled tentatively to sail for New York on March 11.

SHIBE, BASEBALL FIGURE, IS DEAD IN PHILADELPHIA

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 17--(UP)--Baseball circles speculated today on who will succeed S. Shibe, as ruler of the Philadelphia Athletics. He died last night of a complicated ailment.

The veteran organizer and technical expert in the sporting equipment business was 70 years old.

The choice of a successor was balanced between two persons prominently identified with the meteoric rise and fall of the once-powerful A's. They were Connie Mack, 73-year old manager and guiding genius, and John B. Shibe, brother of the late president and vice-president of the organization.
